

Sparkfest 2020

Festival Programme – 6 & 7 October 2020

Day One

Tuesday, 6 October 2020
Time	Topic	Speaker
12pm-12.45 pm	Launching Sparkfest 2020 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What events are coming up for Sparkfest? What is Fire Starter Festival? What's in it for you and why get involved? 	The Fire Starter Team
2pm - 2.45pm	A Trouble Walks into a Bar <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Learn how this event about re-storying life between stand-up and comedy took place 	Jonathan Wyatt & Steve Earl

Day Two

Wednesday, 7 October 2020
9am-9.30 am	Q&A with Beth Cochrane, the Scottish Poetry Library <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Join this Q&A discussion with Beth from the Scottish Poetry Library and learn more about their FSF events 	The Fire Starter Team Beth Cochrane
10am-10.45am	Joining the Dots <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How this FSF event led and the pandemic led to a week-long festival reimagining education – the Creative Bravery festival 	The Creative Bravery Team
11am-11.45	Liberating Structures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> In this session, the team will share their insights and discoveries from their experimental inquiry into 'what are we learning about bringing Liberating Structures into our work in public services' and how it has impacted their practice and thinking over the past 8 months. 	Linda Hunter, Hariett Hunter, Katy McNeil, Leah Lockhart, Jon Gill
12pm-12.45pm	The Balancing Act <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hear from Scottish Government policy makers and arts company Active Inquiry about their #FSF2020 event and how they used Forum Theatre to increase citizen engagement around the developing school age childcare policy. 	Kate Smith, Eilidh Henry
1pm-1.45 pm	How could regeneration increase social equality in Govanhill? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hear from the event host how social presencing theatre supported the creation of this systems mapping event 	Robin Duval
3pm-3.45pm	What Next? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Let's reimagine what Fire Starter Festival 2021 could look & explore what would be most important now. 	The Fire Starter Team